Working Makes a Difference for Todd DeLee

“Not quite there, but I’m on my way.”

Todd DeLee

Todd is a very energetic young man, who loves to take part in any activity that comes into play. Todd has been married for 10 years. He’s also a home owner. Todd became an active member of People First with the Americorps Vista Volunteer Program in February of 1998 until 2000. Todd is a member of Star Choices’s Board of Directors and has been since 1993. He is also an advocate for individuals on the Human Rights Committee.

Todd is presently working at Wal-mart as a Cart Pusher. Todd has been with Wal-mart since November of 2000. Todd also works in other departments of the store when needed. His coworkers, Glenda and Mr. Roberts have become friends with Todd. They sit around at break time and talk about their day.

Todd receives support from Star Choices’s New Horizon Employment Team. Todd stated that he loves to work, because working plays a big part in our lives and it makes a difference in other peoples’ lives. One of Todd’s dream is that he would like to one day have his own on-line retail business.
