

How will we build strong leaders to move our system forward?

A group of Georgia stakeholders, in conjunction with partners in Ohio, have created a unique leadership development opportunity to do exactly that. It's called the Leadership LAUNCHpad.

Participants in the Leadership LAUNCHpad will immerse themselves in a unique three-day long retreat. This is an in-depth and in-person training curriculum designed to provide concrete outcomes for participants and the organizations for which they work.

The serene and "off the beaten path" environment of the Dillard House will provide participants with many opportunities to learn and grow in both structured and relaxed social settings.

Learn (continually)

Aspire (to be great)

Unlock (potential in self & others)

Network (socially)

Challenge (the process, respectfully)

Heat (have it & encourage it!)

Participant Outcomes

1. Understanding Your Leadership Perception

Each participant will receive a personalized report, based on the five practices of exemplary leadership, composed of feedback from co-workers, supervisors, and direct reports.

2. Explore the Soft Skills of Leadership

Participants will leave with an understanding of how to communicate and influence people, up, down, and across their agency, as well as explore ethical leadership and the importance of humility.

3. Conflict Management Resolution

Participants will evaluate their own skills in this area using research based methods, and learn how to leverage their skills in various situations.

4. Professional Development and Accountability

The Leadership LAUNCHpad is designed to meet people where they are on their leadership journey and aims at giving organizations and immediate Return on Investment. Participants will leave with a complete Leadership Toolbox and an understanding of how to impact their organization and the field as a whole.
